

Memorandum of Understanding
By and Between Cascadia Community College and CCCFT
Regarding
Class Limits

This memorandum of understanding (MOU) is between Cascadia Community College (college), district No. 30 and the Cascadia Community College Federation of Teachers (CCCFT).

Whereas the college and CCCFT share a mutual interest in following class limits that have been established in order to maintain the optimum teaching and learning Environment, therefore, Article 8: WORKLOAD AND FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES and more specifically 8.07 addressing Class Limits, shall be modified as follows:

Article 8.8.07 Workload and Faculty Responsibilities – Class Limits

The following class limits have been established in order to maintain the optimum teaching and learning environment. Faculty may overload their classes at their discretion. Deviation from these class limits can be made by mutual agreement. Classes that are offered both via e-learning mode and face-to-face shall use the class caps as listed below:

Descriptor	Course Capacity
Directed interactive learning courses (lecture)	33
Non-lab science and art classes, language classes, Math below 100, ELP, ABE, ESL	30
Public Speaking (CMST& 220)	28
Laboratory Courses including art and drama lab classes, DRMA151/152/153, Creative Writing (ENG 235, 271, 274, 277, 279), English 102 and below	24
Learning communities (10 Credit)	48
Learning Communities (15 Credit)	72

This MOU is a mutual agreement that ENG&235 may be added as new contract language

The MOU is subject to ratification by the CCCFT and approval by the College President and shall be effective February 13, 2014.

Cascadia Community College
Federation of Teachers

Mr. David Shapiro

Cascadia Community College
District No. 30

Dr. Eric Murray, President

CCFT Bargaining Team
Mr. David Shapiro
Dr. Chris Byrne
Ms. Jill Lund

CCC Administrative Bargaining Team
Dr. Rosemary Sutton
Mr. Terence Hsiao
Ms. Gina Lorenz